Ready for Palliative Care: Designing a System of Care

Steven Pantilat, MD
Professor of Medicine
University of California, San Francisco

Tuesday, November 13, 2018, 12:30 pm
University Tower, Room 618
Teleconferencing via Zoom-Medicine
Complete online evaluation to apply for CME credit

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, the participant is expected to be able to

• Describe “palliative care,” describe who might benefit from it, and review approaches to those that may be initially reluctant to accept palliative care
• Describe the UCSF strategic plan to meet patient needs through delivery of palliative care system-wide

Intended Audience: Faculty, Practitioners, Residents, Students
Contact Information: Dr. Mari Shiraishi, mas82@hawaii.edu

This CME activity is sponsored by the Hawaii Consortium for Continuing Medical Education, a joint venture between the Hawaii Medical Association and the John A. Burns School of Medicine. The Hawaii Consortium for Continuing Medical Education is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Hawaii Consortium for Continuing Medical Education designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.